

Current model:

	President	VP Education	VP Wellbeing & Diversity	VP Activities
Portfolio	To represent students, campaign for change and work with other sector bodies on a national level.	To represent students and lead on campaigns and projects to improve their academic experience – Teaching and Learning; Academic Support; Faculty representation; Quality processes; National Student Survey.	To be the lead officer responsible for improving the support available for students – health and wellbeing; equality and diversity and student support services.	To lead on representing University of Plymouth students engaged in UPSU Societies, Sports Clubs, Volunteering, Social Sport Initiatives, Fundraising and Student Media, and undertaking projects/campaigns to enhance their experiences.
	To be the first point of contact for external press relations.	To support the development of the academic representation system, working with key UPSU and University staff, and student volunteers.	To represent the interests of students on issues affecting liberation groups* and lead on campaigns and projects to improve their student experiences. (*Liberation groups - BAME, Disability, LGBT+ and Women & Non-Binary).	To lead on student representation, and the development of projects and initiatives, relating to student employability, working with UPSU and University staff as necessary.
	To lead and support the Sabbatical Officer team.	To engage academic representatives and other students in campaigns to improve the student experience.	To work alongside UPSU departments, especially the UPSU Advice Centre to publicise wellbeing related services and signpost students to support and representation as required.	To assist relevant UPSU departments with the development and support of UPSU student Societies, Sports Clubs, Volunteering, Social Sport Initiatives, and Fundraising, by supporting the delivery of training, Sports and Societies Fairs, and any other activities relating to the role.
	To be a student Governor on the University of Plymouth Board of Governors.	To represent the interests of all Postgraduate students and to lead on campaigns and projects to improve their student experience		To chair both the Sports Club Forum, and the Societies Forum, collating items for discussion and formulating the agenda, with support from the relevant UPSU department.
	To work with key staff members within the UPSU and the University to improve the student experience.	To lead on/support other academic engagement initiatives such as the Student Staff Teaching Awards.		Contribute the strategic development of support and guidance for student Societies, Sports Clubs, Volunteering, Social Sport
	To be the UPSU lead Officer for the Students as Partners agenda, in collaboration with the University.			To support the development of community partnerships between students, UPSU, University and wider community, leading on engagement with key community stakeholders and championing what our students do in the local community and nationally.
	To be the lead Officer responsible for the development of UPSU Democracy.
	Non-specific representation of the University of Plymouth students.	To work with both UPSU staff, University staff and students to develop relationships within a designated faculty.
	To lead on national representation and campaigns to improve the student experience.	To support Course Reps and School Reps within the designated faculty, and escalate concerns they have via relevant channels, and feedback to them accordingly.
	To work with both UPSU staff, University staff and students to develop relationships within Faculties.
Responsibilities as decided at the start of term of office
		Faculty Lead Role
Network Lead – previously Part-time Officer support based on lived experience, allyship or interest
Partner College Lead Representative

New model:

	President Students' Union	President of Health	President of Science and Engineering	President of Arts, Humanities and Business
Portfolio	Engaging with and listening to the views of students, receiving their feedback in a variety of in-person and digital formats.
	Presenting student feedback, to effectively influence positive change in relation to the academic and university experience of students. Whether this be in relation to operational practice, the creation or development of policies, strategy or research
	Working in partnership with students, the Union and the University to deliver academic and non-academic engagement initiatives.
	Ensuring that the opportunities for students' voices to be heard are meaningful, valued and acted upon within the School, Faculty and University.
	Representing students on specific University meetings, committees, groups and boards.
	Driving communication between the faculty, wider University, Students' Union and student body to build a culture of collaboration and united community.
	Acting as a spokesperson and ambassador for the Students' Union alongside the wider representative team. Promoting the value of the Union and its positive impact for students.
	Lobbying the University on relevant issues, shaping positive change on behalf of students.
	Leading on the representation of Postgraduate students and being the key liaison between the Union and the Doctoral College.	Empowering and supporting School Presidents and Course Representatives to create positive changes to the academic experience of students and championing their impact.
	Leading on representing under-represented student groups by proactively seeking their feedback, involving them in shaping initiatives and advocating for them, where necessary.	Representing under-represented student groups by proactively seeking their feedback, involving them in shaping initiatives and advocating for them, where necessary.
To be the lead Sabbatical Officer in relation to the Governance of the Union and to Chair the UPSU Board of Trustees.	Working within the Faculty to ensure students' views are considered when making decisions on all key teaching and learning matters, ensuring that the diversity of the student body is taken into account.
Will be a Student Governor on the University Board of Governors
Being the Lead for the ongoing Sports Strategy and associated work, in collaboration with the University. Representing UoP students at British University College Sport (BUCS) meetings alongside staff
Responsibilities as decided at the start of term of office:
Elect second Governor position
Network Lead – previously Part-time Officer support based on lived experience, allyship or interest
Partner College Lead Representative
Key priority focusses to be identified by role to lead on each year depending on student feedback – for example Cost of Living / Mental Health / Accommodation				